

John Jay College of Criminal Justice, CUNY Gallery Director/Curatorial Studies

John Jay College of Criminal Justice, CUNY invites applications for the Lecturer position of Gallery Director/Curatorial Studies. Starting Fall 2024, the new Director of the Anya and Andrew Shiva Gallery at John Jay College will be responsible for all aspects of operations, maintenance, and programming at the gallery, and will also teach two courses per semester in contemporary art issues, curatorial and/or museum studies. The ideal candidate will have a passion for presenting dynamic public visual art programming, teaching undergraduate students, and the ability to use the resources of the gallery as a teaching tool for the larger college community and beyond.

John Jay College is dedicated to exploring issues of justice. Candidates are expected to bring enthusiasm, be eager and qualified to work with our diverse student body, and have a demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. As demonstrated in John Jay College's Seven Principles for a Culturally Responsive, Inclusive, and Anti-Racist Curriculum (https://new.jjay.cuny.edu/sites/default/files/2023-08/7_Princip_Cultur_Resp_Incl_AntiRacist_Curric_Adopt_4.8.21-brief.pdf), the College seeks colleagues who thrive in a multicultural, collaborative academic environment and who are committed to supporting access and excellence in higher education.
